

We keep your employees...

...and business healthy.

Peterson Urgent Care & Occupational Health Services

Presents: An Open House Seminar

Navigating Workers' Compensation in a Struggling Economy

Thursday April 22, 2010

9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

(Facility tour and breakfast at 8:30 AM)

2300 W. Peterson Ave.

Chicago, IL 60659

SEMINAR TOPICS

- Understanding the Illinois Workers' Compensation system
- Top challenges that employers face here in Illinois
- Outline of Workers' Compensation benefits
- Settlement vs. Trial – determining the best decision
- Expectations to demand from your defense counsel
- Tips for improvement of accident investigation
- Overlap and distinctions between Workers' Compensation issues and employment law

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Paul Krauter is a Partner with the law firm Roddy Leahy Guilla & Zima. He focuses his practice in the area of defense of workers' compensation claims. His client base includes a variety of employers and insurers throughout the state of Illinois. Mr. Krauter's practice also includes appeals of workers' compensation claims to the Appellate Court and Illinois Supreme Court. He received his J.D. from John Marshall Law School and is a member of the American Bar, Chicago Bar, Illinois Bar and Workers' Compensation Lawyers Association

Dennis Powers is an Insurance Advisor and Lead Educator for Lamb, Little & Co. He currently works with the Illinois Chamber of Commerce to educate employers of the need for Workers Compensation Reform in Illinois. He received his Law Enforcement degree from Western Illinois University. He has 16 years of multi-line claims handling, fraud investigation and insurance experience.

Sue Dawson is a Partner with the law firm Waltz, Palmer & Dawson and advises clients on all aspects of employment issues facing business today including discrimination, harassment, hiring and firing policies, employment manuals executive compensation, non-competing agreements and Workers' Compensation issues. She received her law degree from Loyola University and is a member of the Illinois State and Northwest Suburban Bar Associations

Jack Griffin has had a thirty year career with the Chicago Police Department. His tenure includes twenty years of experience with investigations, surveillance and businesses' internal thefts. He launched his own company, Special Investigations and Security Experts, LLC in 1988. He specializes in pre-employment background checks, Workman's Compensations investigations and Human Resource issues including employee/witness interviews, financial crimes, surveillance of sexual harassment and theft.

To register, email or call by April 19, 2010.

Mary Vickery

mvickery@dmc-doc.com

(773) 307-6797

Seminar content is pending approval by the HRIC for X CE credit hours.

Seminar content is pending approval by the CPA for X CE credit hours.